Afterbirth

Author's Notes:
Written for the prompt of \"sin\". I never thought I\'d end up writing something like this!

One night of sweet, sweet sin. That was all it took to ruin his fucking life. Life was for living, so he gave in to temptation. There'd be hell to pay, but he figured it'd come way down the line.

He'd looked---once---at the livid red line across his lower belly then hurled until it felt like he was being cut open all over again. Next door he could hear Taylor cooing and singing and he choked back the wild screams that threatened to erupt. Any minute now, Tay would come in, give him that hopeful look and offer him their son.
